What with all the discussion about '2012', I thought I would take the opportunity to offer a few thoughts about the issue. There are a number of perspectives that need to be examined, and the first one is the issue of the Mayan Calendar and the year '2012'.

Mayan Calendrical Considerations

The actual experts on Mayan culture are only a few in number. A prominent expert is Sven Gronemeyer, a German expert on the culture, who recently wrote an article entitled "No Doomsday", excerpted here: "Gronemeyer has been studying the stone tablet found years ago at the archeological site of Tortuguero in Mexico's Gulf coast state of Tabasco. He said the inscription describes the return of mysterious Mayan god Bolon Yokte at the end of a 13th period of 400 years, known as Baktuns, on the equivalent of Dec. 21, 2012. Mayans considered 13 a sacred number. There's nothing apocalyptic in the date, he said. The text was carved about 1,300 years ago. The stone has cracked, which has made the end of the passage almost illegible. Gronemeyer said the inscription refers to the end of a cycle of 5,125 years since the beginning of the Mayan Long Count calendar in 3113 B.C. "The date acquired a symbolic value because it is seen as a reflection of the day of creation," Gronemeyer said. "It is the passage of a god and not necessarily a great leap for humanity."

Every time the Long Count calendar restarts, it is certainly the anniversary of the day of creation. The last day of creation, for the Maya believed there have been several. And the day before that will likewise be the anniversary of the last time the Mayan world ended, 5125 years ago. And each previous time their world ended, it was via a natural disaster, instigated by the gods. Every debunking scholar skips that part." Gronemeyer is also mentioned in a recent article entitled "Mexico Launches 2012 Mayan Apocalypse Countdown", dated 12/20/11, in which he says, "The doomsday theories stem from a stone tablet discovered in the 1960s at the archaeological site of Tortuguero in the Gulf of Mexico state of Tabasco that describes the return of a Mayan god at the end of a 13th period. Believers have taken the end-of-the world fears to the Internet with hundreds of thousands of websites and blogs. "The Maya are viewed by many westerners as exotic folks that were supposed to have had some special, secret knowledge," said Mayan scholar Sven Gronemeyer. "What happens is that our expectations and fears get projected on the Maya calendar. For some reason, Gronemeyer says, people have ignored evidence that dates beyond 2012 were recorded."

So, by virtue of the Mayan culture and its astronomically derived cyclical observations, it just marks the end of the 5,125 year cycle and the beginning of another one. - that's all it does. It is an end of an 'era'. Consider that 'civilization' apart from the Maya is considered to have existed for some 5,000 years. No coincidence there. Normally, the end of a civilization is a messy business, and it doesn't take much critical thought to discern that this civilization is about over, and that's all right, because we all still exist after it's over.

Geological Considerations

I recently watched a program on 4/22/12 on the Science Channel (11pm, "When The Earth Erupts") about the African Rift valleys, which have more than 50,000 years of valley wall exposed for analysis. It reveals that violent periods of volcanic eruption have happened about every 10,000 years ... with the following period of less activity. The program made it clear that at this time, a 10,000 year violent period is starting.

Socio-Political Considerations

The socio-political dynamic for 2012 seems to be one of ever-increasing darkness and despair for the general population, which has no idea of the actual larger context of their own experience. The dynamic beginning in 2013, socially, worldwide, would be a never-ending clusterfuck of despair.

Climatological Considerations

The general climate of the planet will continue to become cooler, with unstable and increasingly violent weather patterns and various natural disasters. It will also prevent the growing of food crops and contribute toward the mortality of the population after 2012.

Astrological Considerations

The astrological picture for 2012 is pretty volatile, with prominent periods of activity beginning with the solar eclipse on May 20, followed by a host of problems between June 18, 2012 through June 30, wherein the South Node involvement portends heavy changes, followed by a Mercury Retrograde on July 12, 2012, and resonances with solar and lunar eclipses on July 20, 2012 and August 20, 2012. From September 19 through Sept 29th, the South Node is again involved with heavy events and changes. On October 5th, Saturn moves into Scorpio, with portends heavy events from then on. On November 6th, Mercury goes Retrograde, followed by a Solar Eclipse on November 13th in Scorpio, with Mars going into Capricorn on November 16th, and Mars squaring Uranus on November 23rd, and conjuncting Pluto on November 27th.

Spirit Level and Large Scale Existential Considerations

_____ A _____ B _____ C _____ D _____

A: Where we are now

B: End of Civilization Due to Graduation of Planetary Spirit Individual, also ending Life on Earth and individuals move into new experiences (M5)
This is what WOULD come, if the civilization were to continue:

C: End of Civilization From Socio-Political Mismanagement (2013 - 2020)

D: End of Civilization from Geological , Climatological and Other Causes (2020-2100)

Matrix 5 Related Considerations and Conclusions

Item 1: Segment Extract: Timeline Convergence & A Block Into 2013 23 Jan 2012
"An M5 reader sent me a link to see: BILL WOOD: ABOVE & BEYOND PROJECT
LOOKING GLASS at this link:

http://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=nkIIBnIuXHM
[See time reference 1:59:50 for start of section on 2012. Val]

The interesting secret government conclusion: On December 21, 2012, there will be a 'convergence of all timelines' with 2 events possible.

1. Metamorphosis of (simultaneous path) Earthers...moving from caterpillar to butterfly as quickly as you can snap your fingers. All deceptions will be known. All lies exposed.

2. The elite's underground bunkers are used and sealed while the rest of the world gets to fend for themselves (doomsday scenarios in play).

Bill mentions more than once that the number 2 probability is not number 1 and the odds were in heavy favor of number 1.

Author Comment: "Another item of interest: the year 2013 is blocked from viewing by remote viewers and astral travelers. True, the Galaxy Game creator(s) have a block there. While I have ventured to 2200, and that is post Graduation (including the Planetary Spirit), the creator(s) do have a purpose in placing that block at 2013. Finals are also blocked from visiting 2013. Another Final I know told me how he was also unable to move passed the block and we did discuss upcoming events. He told me how he saw us in Canada bring the Star Cluster in along with other enhancements to certain Higher Selves and this solar system's Sun (Higher Self of the Planetary Spirit). Yes, conversations between Awakened Finals can be most interesting."

Now, with what Bill calls the 'metamorphosis' is what I call Graduation. After Graduation, all that knowledge/information, which was kept from us while simultaneously incarnated, will be released.

"All timelines will converge" - The Awakened Final of all simultaneous path Higher Selves will operate their Nexus of Time and each of the Graduating Higher Selves will move to the Gathering.

Those who are continuing in the Game begin their new lives on the next Simultaneously designated world in a far different location in this galaxy.

Sequential riff-raff on Earth will find their incarnations here died and they have to have new ones on their home worlds while the major Game addicts begin their search for that newly designated world.

This is just another (major) indication that this is THE year, no matter who prefers to live in denial (body ID issues for most with Game addictions - lots of pearl clutching to come). Nevertheless, time will tell and we'll see if it all comes to pass. After all, we really have moved from decades to years and now months until we find out one way or another about 2012. Finals do not have access to the date either. Our Higher Selves want to experience the surprises heavily indicated." Item 2: Segment Extract: Graduation Key Update 2012 2 Feb 2012 "The Graduation Key and Star Cluster have become visually VERY active. The Star Cluster is pulsing with energy (electrical-appearing to me) with bolts of energy moving from it to the Key. This energy continues around the Key and pulses to Earth's Sun (Higher Self of the Earth Planetary Spirit). It really is something to see."

"This energy has its source with this Galaxy Game's creator(s) as the Star Cluster is their Game creation to facilitate Graduation. I also went to check on the Planetary Spirit who is now shimmering with a rainbow of brilliant energy colors."

Comments

Many people want to know specifically 'when' we'll be out of here ... what 'date'. That information is not available. The indications are that we will be out of here between now and the beginning of 2013. The whole point for Higher Selves is to experience upcoming events through their incarnations, wherein the 'response' to events relates to ones spiritual progression. If you know about something, then it's impossible to gauge ones true response to the events when they happen. The M5 author has mentioned the subject of 'spirit shock' that will happen with Higher Self incarnations when events throw everyone out of their bodies and they find themselves on the 4th density, so it will be a 'surprise' when it happens. The major instantaneous method that WILL happen is the departure of the incarnation on the nature spirit path ... which feeds all life on the planet. When it leaves, through the magnetic conduit between the graduation key vortex and the Sun, all life on Earth will drop dead and parts of the atmosphere will fly off ... there are components of the atmosphere that relate to the life force propagated by the 'nature spirit'. Wilhelm Reich did some research in that area. Of course, this doesn't preclude other kinds of events from happening during this period. We already see the results of the changes happening within the planet .. the unstable geology is growing more and more prominent. Many things 'could' happen. Some things would make these last months very interesting. Things arriving from space always bring thrills. You wanted to be here to gather these experiences. Whining is beneath you.

Considering the general progress and changes in the Graduation Key, as recorded in the segments, technically, we could be out of here any time between now and the end of 2012.

So ... it all boils down to our state of mind. I call it the "Krypton Effect" - what you do and how you think when you know the civilization and the game is coming to a conclusion. If you know what the accurate truth is, then in order to be internally consistent everything you do, and what you think, must reflect the highest truth that you know is accurate.

We know what's happening and why, and we know we move on from here, many of us leaving the galaxy game board forever. We are all immortal, and this is just an experiential game board. It's that simple. There is actually nothing to 'worry' about. Just trust your Higher Self, the real you, and the path that has been uniquely designed for you because that's what you wanted to experience ... the complete explanation for the underlying reasons are only totally understandable from a Higher Self perspective .. You knew what you were doing.
